OFFER DESCRIPTION

Notice no. 9516/2022

Opening of an international selection procedure for the recruitment of a PhD holder within the context of the project UIDP/04627/2020 – Instituto Português de Relações Internacionais – Universidade Nova de Lisboa

Professor Luís Baptista, Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities of the NOVA University of Lisbon (NOVA FCSH), hereby makes it public that an international selection procedure for the recruitment of a PhD holder, through an open-ended employment contract at the NOVA University of Lisbon - Faculty of Social and Human Sciences, is now open, for a period of 20 working days, to carry out (scientific investigation activities/ science management activities/ science communication activities) as part of the project UIDP/04627/2020, funded by the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology through national funds.

The opening of the vacancy procedure, as well as the appointment of the selection board, were authorised by order of the Rector of the NOVA University of Lisbon, on 26 of April of 2022, following the assent of the Scientific Council of the NOVA FCSH.

1 - Hiring the doctoral candidate will be carried out under Decree Law No. 57/2016, of 29 August, as amended by Law No. 57/2017, of 19 July, which approves a system for hiring PhD holders to stimulate scientific and technological employment in all areas of knowledge (RJEC), the Labour Code, approved by Law No. 7/2009, of 12 February, in its current wording and Implementing Decree No. 11-A/2017, of 29 December.

2 - The PhD holder shall be contracted under an open-ended employment contract by legal imperative, under the terms of subparagraph b) of paragraph 1 of article 6 of the RJEC, ex vi, paragraph 2 of article 18 of the RJEC, and shall only remain in force for the period necessary to carry out the tasks specified in the project and identified in the following paragraph.

3 – Description of the vacancy:

The project UIDP/04627/2020, taking place until 31.12.2023, aims to:

Hire a PhD holder in International Relations to develop the scientific potential of this scientific área in the scope of the research and dissemination activities carried out by Instituto Português de Relações Internacionais.

The contracted researcher will become a member of the project team, participating in the following scientific research and knowledge dissemination tasks:

- Submission of applications for national and international funding;
- Publication of articles in journals of high international impact;
- Participation in publishing projects;
- Participation in national and international research projects;
- Participation in national and international congresses and scientific events;
- Promotion and organization of scientific events, seminars and discussion forums;
- Promotion and participation in dissemination activities.

4 - Under article 2 of Implementing Decree no. 11-A/2017, of 29 December, the contract to be signed will have a base-level remuneration of 2.153,94€, in accordance with level 33 of the 1st remuneratory position.

5 - The place of work is the IPRI-NOVA premises, located at the Colégio Almada Negreiros – Campus de Campolide, 1099-032, and/or at other places necessary to undertake the researcher's activities.

6 - National, foreign and stateless candidates can apply holding a PhD degree in International Relations, with a scientific and professional curriculum that shows a suitable profile for the activities to be undertaken.

7 - The selection of the PhD holder to be hired is carried out through assessment of the scientific and curricular background of the candidates in the selection process.

The assessment of the scientific and curricular career, taking into account the profile suitable for the activities to be undertaken, focuses on the relevance, quality and up-to-datedness of: a) the scientific, cultural and artistic production in the last five years considered most relevant by the candidate; b) the research activities developed in the last five years and considered by the candidate as having the greatest impact; c) the extension and dissemination of knowledge activities developed in the last five years, particularly in the context of promoting scientific culture and practices, which is considered by the candidate as having the greatest relevance; d) the work plan – research project that the candidate proposes to carry out.

8 - The five-year period referred to in the preceding paragraph may be extended by the Jury, at the candidate's request, when justified by suspension of scientific activity for socially protected reasons, namely for reasons of parental leave, prolonged serious illness, and other situations of unavailability for work that are legally protected.

9 — The classification system for the candidates will be expressed on a scale of 0 to 100 points

10 - The assessment criteria for the candidates are the following:

a) Scientific, cultural and artistic production considered most relevant by the candidate, linked to the position open for applications, namely books, book chapters, scientific papers in refereed journals, with the intrinsic quality of its content being assessed (0-40 points);

b) Research activities considered by the candidate(s) to have had the greatest impact, link to the vacant post, considering their coordination of and/or participation in research projects assessed by national or international entities; the submission of approved and non-approved applications; papers presented at scientific meetings; scientific arbitration activities; participation in networks and partnerships; the research project proposal and its activity plan (0-20 points);

c) Extension and/or dissemination activities considered to have had the greatest impact by the candidate, linked to the post being applied for, including the organization of scientific meetings; the issuing of opinions; studies and reports for public and private entities and civil society stakeholders; spread of knowledge to extended publics; presentation of research results within the media (0-15 points).

d) Work plan – research project (0-25 pontos).

11 - Candidates who do not obtain a final classification equal to or higher than 80 points shall not be included in the applicants for the post, due to lack of absolute merit.

12 - The selection board is composed as follows:

Chairperson:

Doctor Nuno Severiano Teixeira, Full Professor.

Active members:

Doctor Ana Santos Pinto, Assistant Professor;

Doctor David Castaño, Assistant Researcher;

Doctor Joana Castro Pereira, Junior Researcher.

13 - The application process must be accompanied, under penalty of exclusion, by the following documents:

- a) Submission of the application form (available at https://www.fcsh.unl.pt/content/uploads/2020/02/Formul%C3%A1rio-de-Candidatura\_Application-Form-Researcher.pdf) where the present procedure is explicitly mentioned;
- b) Copy of the certificate attesting the degree of Doctor
- c) If the degree has been awarded by foreign higher education institutions, a declaration of honour in accordance with the specific pro forma (available at https://www.fcsh.unl.pt/faculdade/concursos\_para\_investigadores/);
- d) A copy of the applicant's curriculum vitae, organized in accordance with the systematic outline set out in paragraph 10 of this Notice;
- e) Work plan – research project.

14 - Applications should be accompanied, under penalty of exclusion, with the documents mentioned above and should be sent within 20 working days from the day following the publication of this Notice in the Official Gazette Diário da República, to the email address concursosprojetos@fcsh.unl.pt. The subject of the email should indicate the reference in the Notice and the documents should preferably be in PDF format.

In case of doubt, the selection board may require any candidate to produce documents supporting their statements.

False statements made by candidates will be punished in accordance with the law.

Candidates are excluded from admission to the vacancy procedure if they formalise their application incorrectly or do not prove the requirements indicated for the present vacancy procedure.

15 - If the PhD of the selected candidate has been conferred by a foreign higher education institution, its recognition shall follow the provisions of Decree-Law no. 66/2018, of 16 August, and any formalities established therein must be fulfilled by the date of the signing the contract.

The candidate ranked immediately after the first ranked candidate will be invited to the position under consideration, when the academic degree of the PhD holder is not recognised after the above-mentioned formalities have been completed.

16 - Non-discrimination and equal access policy: The NOVA University of Lisbon actively promotes a policy of non-discrimination and equal access, so that no candidate can be privileged, benefited, harmed or deprived of any right or exempt from any duty due to, in particular, ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, economic situation, education, social origin or condition, genetic heritage, reduced working capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, territory of origin, language, religion, political or ideological convictions or trade union membership.

28 of April of 2022 — The Dean, Professor Luís Baptista
